THEIS WINS SCRABBLE

Congratulations to Brother Bob Theis for winning our first experiment in running a SCRABBLE game. He even outscored the computer's suggested best answers. Alas, the expert level computer opponent bested team Boris, but two others were left in the dust. As I feared, half the players outraged in despair and dropped after the first turn.

That leaves another page to fill, but one that "Artemis Gordon" may gobble up as the players make very good speed pbem. MERCHANT OF VENUS and WIZARD'S QUEST are nearest to quora, but the former is a two-pager and the latter doesn't really have a postal system yet.

IMMEDIATE GAME OPENINGS:

CIRCUS MAXIMUS: Benjlos may be available.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: "He who beats his sword into a plow share, shall plow for he who keeps his sword." -- Zoltan 1:1

NEW ON THE WEBSITE: The Hall of Fame page has been updated.

The WBC pbem MANIFEST DESTINY tourney starts 1 Apr. If you're interested in playing this sequel to AGE OF RENAISSANCE, check it out at Reference 1.

PICTURE OF THE MONTH: Ex-Boriser Tony Rezzarday wrestling with a demon-cow.

BOOS & KUDOS

The Madame Bolduc Press Excellence Award goes this month to John Quigley for his Kyoto article in "Wise Open Spaces".

This month's Ms Nar Super-Sudsy Bomb is lobbed at Ben Barrett for NMRing in CIRCUS MAXIMUS.

AUSTRIA ON THE ROPES!

Fall 1983

XVIII
2005F

CLIFFHOME: With an unholy Russo-Turkish alliance to the east, a distracted German to the northwest, and the Italian jackal to the west, how long can a three-center Austria, bereft of her capital, survive? And what is going on in the West? France on the defensive, the German drive bogged down, and Britain taking potshots at her only counterweight against a Franco-German assault.

EMBASSY BEAT

A-I: I admit to being disconcerted when you moved into TRI. Perhaps I reacted hastily.

A-R: The Turks covet our homelands. Let's work together to stop him while we can.

Constantinople - The Sultan has ordered the Fleet in Greece to investigate the disappearance of the Italian Army in Serbia. Although the Italians reported no involvement by the Serbians in the Feta cheese scandal, the disappearance of an entire army has sparked fears of dastardly deeds by another perpetrator, presumably the Austrians. The Russians have quickly moved to Vienna and seized government documents, wine, beer, liquor, and cheese to determine if the Austrians are the source of the fetid Feta. Preliminary indications of a plot to feed the spoiled feta to the English government in a pudding have yet to be substantiated.

Italy to All - The Pope is concerned at the lack of Austrian tact. It has become obvious that the grate counterfeit cheese scandal was started by the powers in Vienna. When the Papal investigative team was dispatched to Albania, they discovered the truth of the matter. Those investigators were summarily destroyed by the Austrians, but not before the truth of the matter had been smuggled out of Albania by boat. The Austrians are the grate cheese counterfeiters!!!!

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Kostvo Klarrion: The Italian Army recently in Albania has been implicated in the Cheese conspiracy as the Austrian Naval unit investigating apparently found the Italian unit destroyed when it arrived in Alb. Foul Feta is suspected. In other news.....

MIRKWOOD: China is the target d' jour as Russia and Japan plunge their daggers in and France flails away at her southern salient. While this is surely a godsend to the British, Holland has the mass to make a push on coastal India (and the Russians may get to join in using Turkish sealift) and the Turks expand inexorably eastward.

France: Ya know, it just might work....

KYOTO: In a completely unexpected move, the Crown Prince Jack (jack@quigleyclan.com) today stormed the palace of the Emperor (john@quigleyclan.com) and seized control of the military. Disgusted with the Emperor's continued subservience to the Chinese leadership, Prince Jack noted that the Emperor had for three years offered to work with the Chinese. "We can not stand by while the Chinese laugh at our pacifism and reap the advantages on the mainland. China has had every chance to work with the Kingdom of Japan and has refused to do so." In an open invitation to the other Powers, Prince Jack further stated "We now offer our cooperation to any Power that wishes to be, and can prove that they are, an ally of Japan in this prolonged engagement."

EMBASSY BEAT

Aust to France, again Thanks... give me some idea of your intentions so I can help

The Pope to Austria and France: Looks like we're in this together. The best thing we can do for all of us is to finish of Venice as fast as we can. Naples is sacrificing some control to allow a focus in the north. My objective is to move on Venice, not either of you. Between the three of us, we should be able to take him. All we have to do is take Padua, Treviso, Dalmatia and Venice itself! Doesn't sound that tough does it?

Naples to Turkey: You may make some headway here, but your ally in the North Adriatic is being pressed on all sides. Perhaps you should come to his aid a bit.

Venice to Papacy and Naples- you are right all along. How foolish of me. Forgive me. I repent of my sin.

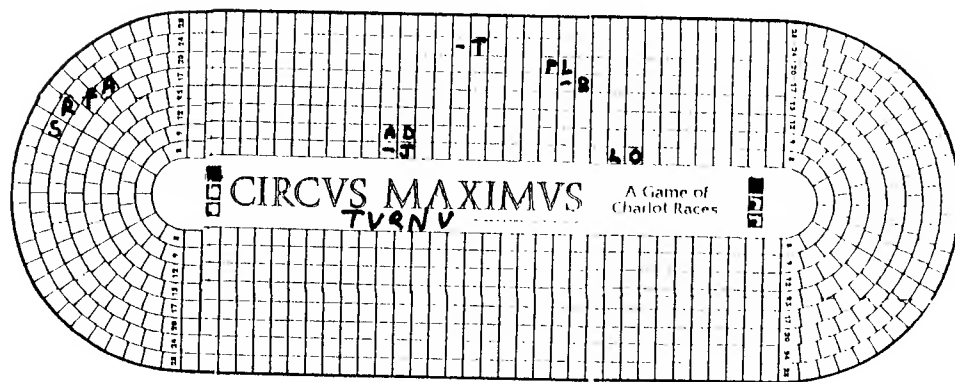

GM-all: As I read it the win happens when a player has the requisite 18 cities, not an individual nation. So, France/Venice (with 19) would've already won. The next most threatening combinations are Venice/Papacy (17), France/Papacy (16), Venice/Turks (15), ... well, you can figure out the rest of the permutations.

Russia to Turkey - Would you kindly stop with the hookah for a moment and get my troops out of the stinkin' desert????

SCRABBLE

Turns 6/7 = End

A₁

Standard SCRABBLE rules apply. Everyone plays the same rack of tiles vs three computer opponents. You score what you propose to be played. We take the highest scoring submission (ties broken at random) and play that to the board.

Acceptability of words will be decided by the program (high score only), my unabridged dictionary, Ms Nar's SCRABBLE dictionaries, and common usage, so yes, we'll allow those much maligned four letter Anglo-Saxon words (but the program won't).

The Turn 6 rack is: O,R,V

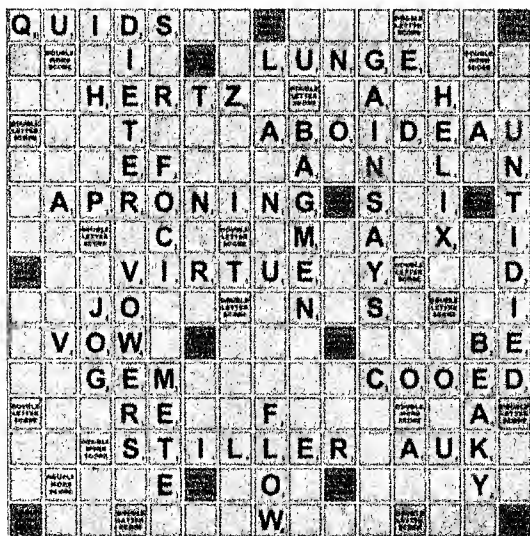

PLAYER	WORD(S)	SCORE	TOTAL
Thels	Vow	17 pts	258 pts
MacDuff	Vow	17 pts	255 pts
Nichols	Vow	17 pts	197 pts
York	Vow	17 pts	164 pts

ON THE BOARD			BONUS	FINAL
Team Boris:	Vow	17 pts	258 pts -2	256
MacAdam:	eF/FoCl	28 pts	185 pts -3	182
MacBeth:	Gem	17 pts	283 pts -4	279
MacCormick:	LUNgE	8 pts	121 pts +9	129

MacCormick's rack is empty. The game is over. Thels is the Boris Champion. Due next time are any after-game statements.

LEGEND: Capital letters are being played. Small letters are already on the board. Underlined letters are blanks. The MacXxxx entries are computer generated.

Game transcript and board are on the website.
